A reading from the Book of Psalms:

Psalm 99

1 The Lord is king: let the peoples tremble; • he is enthroned above the cherubim: let the earth shake.

2 The Lord is great in Zion • and high above all peoples. 3 Let them praise your name, which is great and awesome; • the Lord our God is holy. 4 Mighty king, who loves justice, you have established equity; • you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt the Lord our God; • bow down before his footstool, for he is holy. 6 Moses and Aaron among his priests and Samuel among those who call upon his name; •

they called upon the Lord and he answered them. 7 He spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; •

they kept his testimonies and the law that he gave them. 8 You answered them, O Lord our God; • you were a God who forgave them and pardoned them for their offences. 9 Exalt the Lord our God and worship him upon his holy hill, • for the Lord our God is holy.

A reading from the Gospels:

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

Glory to you O Lord!

Luke 9.28-36 [37-43a]

28 Now about eight days after these sayings Jesus took with him Peter and John and James, and went up on the mountain to pray.

29 And while he was praying, the appearance of his face changed, and his clothes became dazzling white. 30 Suddenly they saw two men, Moses and Elijah, talking to him. 31 They appeared in glory and were speaking of his departure,

Collect

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross:

give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ:

may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save.

This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem. 32 Now Peter and his companions were weighed down with sleep; but since they had stayed awake, they saw his glory and the two men who stood with him. 33 Just as they were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three dwellings, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah'—not knowing what he said. 34 While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them; and they were terrified as they entered the cloud. 35 Then from the cloud came a voice that said, 'This is my Son, my Chosen; listen to him!' 36 When the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And they kept silent and in those days told no one any of the things they had seen.
